

Making the right choice

Are you confident living independently with occasional or modest support, for example housekeeping?

Consider a villa, townhouse or apartment

Are you living independently at the moment but feel you are becoming less confident, or finding your health deteriorating?

Consider a villa, townhouse or apartment with an appropriate care package, or a serviced apartment

Do you want to retain your independence and minimise moves between homes should your health decline?

Consider a serviced apartment

Do you need regular support or active management of medication to remain independent?

Consider a serviced apartment

Have you been assessed as needing rest home level care?

Consider a serviced apartment or a standard, premium or deluxe room in our care centre

Is your mobility severely compromised?

Consider a serviced apartment or a standard, premium or deluxe room in our care centre

Have you been assessed as needing hospital level care?

Consider a standard, premium or deluxe room in our care centre

