

Te Awamutu

care | comfort | compassion
companionship | connectedness

Welcome to CHT Care Homes, where we have more than 60 years' experience looking after older people in our rest home, hospital and dementia care homes throughout the North Island.

As a not-for-profit organisation, we have the heart of a charity with the competence of a successful business, and we are guided by our values around care, compassion, comfort, connectedness and community, ensuring that every resident and their family is welcomed, respected and supported.

Our not-for-profit status also gives us the freedom to continually reinvest in our facilities, services, residents, staff and the wider sector through our Aged Care Fund.

We are devoted to providing access to quality, affordable care that spans the full spectrum of individual needs - physical, emotional, mental, cultural and social - in safe and carefully-designed environments.

Welcome to CHT Te Awamutu Care Home

Residents enjoy beautiful garden surroundings, light and warm living and dining spaces, and the very best in care, including seamless transition between levels of care as needs change over time. Adjacent to Highfield Country Estate Retirement Village, this care home also provides excellent continuity of care for village residents and their families.
