Your care

At Bupa Rossendale Care Home, we care about your individuality.

Our Person First approach means we take the time to get to know you. We'll ask you about your favourite things and what you like to do. From there, we'll create a care plan to include your dietary needs, medication, and activities to support you to live the life that's right for you.

Our team will be happy to guide you through the process of moving into a care home.

Life at Bupa Rossendale Care Home

There's always something happening at Rossendale Care Home, whether it's housie, cards, bowling, crafts or happy hour. Our activities for residents can be enjoyed individually or in groups, and offer both physical and mental benefits. You can take part in as much or as little as you like, it is up to you.

About Bupa

Bupa New Zealand is part of the leading Bupa Group, a global healthcare company.

Bupa already supports more than 5,000 residents throughout New Zealand, living in independent apartments and villas, or warm and welcoming care homes.

Our purpose is helping people live longer, healthier, happier lives and making a better world.

Globally, the Bupa Group invests back into improving the quality of our health and care services.

Live the life that's right for you

At Bupa, we don't just manage villages and care homes, we help you to live the life that's right for you. We know making the move into village or care home living can seem a little daunting, that's why we're here to assist you with advice and support through the journey.

Being you with Bupa is easy when you're living in a friendly community of like-minded people, supported by a caring and approachable team.

With 35 retirement villages and 40 care homes across New Zealand, Bupa offers you the life that's right for you.
