Your care

At Bupa Rossendale Care Home, we care about your individuality.

Our Person First approach means we take the time to get to know you, so we can tailor care to meet your needs.

We promise to give you the best possible care. We'll ask you about your favourite things and what you like to do. From there, we'll create a care plan to include your dietary needs, medication, and activities to make sure you can live the life that's right for you.

Our team will be happy to guide you through the process of moving into a care home. We'll put you at the centre and make sure you're looked after with respect and dignity.

Our people

At Bupa Rossendale Care Home, we choose all our team carefully to make sure that you get the care you need, from people who are kind and respectful.

Life at Bupa Rossendale Care Home

We have many activities for residents that can be enjoyed individually or in groups. These activities are designed to keep residents engaged and entertained, but many offer physical and mental benefits as well. There's always something happening at Rossendale Care Home, whether it's housie, cards, bowling, crafts or happy hour. You have the choice to enjoy your peace and quiet, or socialise with your neighbours. It is up to you how you spend your day.
