

The background of the advertisement is a photograph of a female caregiver and an elderly male resident walking together outdoors. The caregiver, on the left, is wearing blue scrubs and has her arm around the resident's arm. The resident, on the right, is wearing a dark blue sweater and brown trousers, and is using a walking stick. They are both smiling and looking at each other. The background shows a garden with trees and a wooden fence.

Your care

At Bupa Ashford Care Home, we care about your individuality.

Our Person First approach means we take the time to get to know you, so we can tailor care to meet your needs.

We promise to give you the best possible care. We'll ask you about your favourite things and what you like to do. From there, we'll create a care plan to include your dietary needs, medication, and activities to make sure you can live the life that's right for you.

Our team will be happy to guide you through the process of moving into a care home. We'll put you first and make sure you're looked after with respect and dignity

Our people

At Bupa Ashford Care Home, we choose our team carefully to make sure you get the care you need, from people who are kind and respectful.

Life at Bupa Ashford Care Home

We have many activities for residents that can be enjoyed individually or in groups. These activities are designed to keep residents engaged and entertained, but many offer physical and mental benefits as well. There's always something happening, whether it's board games, exercise programmes or playing housie. You have the choice to enjoy your peace and quiet or socialise with your neighbours. It is up to you how you spend your day.

About Bupa

Bupa New Zealand is part of the global Bupa Group of companies, a leading international health and care organisation. Bupa New Zealand draws on the Bupa Group's wider international expertise and experience to help provide people with better health and care choices, support and advice.

Bupa already supports more than 5,000 residents throughout New Zealand, living in independent apartments and villas, or warm and welcoming care homes.

Our purpose is helping people live longer, healthier, happier lives and making a better world.

Globally, the Bupa Group invests back into improving the quality of our health and care services.
