Day Stay Care

Funding: Our day-stay programme can be funded through Needs Assessment and Service Coordination (NASC), also known as Disability Support Link (DSL). This means that the days approved by DSL for day stay care can be provided free of charge.

If additional days are required outside of your NASC/DSL allocation, we offer the flexibility of a private-pay option to ensure the care and support you need is available.

Benefits of Day Stay Care:

- Encourages socialisation and reduces isolation.
- Supports independence while providing a safe, structured routine.
- Gives families flexibility while ensuring your loved one is cared for.
- Culturally inclusive care tailored to individual needs.
- Available on a regular or casual basis to suit individual schedules.
- Nutritious home-cooked meals tailored to dietary needs provided (morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea).
- Day Stay Care service runs weekdays (9:00am - 3:00pm).
- Pick up available within Ōtorohanga township.
