Your care

At Bupa Merrivale Care Home, we care about your individuality.

Our Person First approach means we take the time to get to know you, so we can tailor care to meet your needs.

We promise to give you the best possible care. We'll ask you about your favourite things and what you like to do. From there, we'll create a care plan to include your dietary needs, medication, and activities to make sure you can live the life that's right for you.

Our team will be happy to guide you through the process of moving into a care home. We'll put you first and make sure you're looked after with respect and dignity.

Our people

At Bupa Merrivale Care Home, we choose all our team carefully to make sure that you get the care you need, from people who are kind and respectful.

Short stay

If you are caring for a family member or friend and feel that you need some respite, you can use Bupa's short stay services. Our short stay services can range from a few days to a few weeks. Admission is dependent on bed availability.

Life at Bupa Merrivale Care Home

There is always something happening at Bupa Merrivale Care Home, whether it's bowls, arts and crafts or outings. Our residents also participate in community groups like the RSA. It is your choice whether you would like to take part in activities, we will always respect your wishes. It is up to you how you spend your day.
